

SPIROS JACOVIDES Bio & Filmography

Spiros Jacovides was born in London and studied Directing at Stavrakou Film School after having completed his Film Studies degree at the London College of Printing. In 1998 he attended the German Academy of Film in Berlin (DFFB) as a guest student. Since 2000, Spiros worked as A.D. in various TV Commercials.

Currently he writes, produces and directs TVCs, Web Ads, Short Docs, Corporate videos and Video Clips.

He has written and directed three short films. "Black Stone" is his first feature film.

2022 - "Black Stone" 87' Co-Writer / Director

THESSALONIKI IFF 2022 — GFC Best Newcomer Director Award / FISCHER Audience Award MEET THE NEIGHBORS / FISCHER Audience Award GREEK FILM FESTIVAL "MICHAEL CACOYANNIS / YOUTH JURY Best Feature Film Award

TRIESTE IFF 2023— Competition

2009 - "Dr. Mori's Teleshopping" 6' Writer / Director

CANNES 2009 (NFB Competition)

MECAL 2009, Barcelona (Competition)

WORLD OF COMEDY 2009, Toronto (Competition)

JUST FOR LAUGHS 2009, Montreal (Competition)

KRAKOW FILM FESTIVAL 2009 (Competition)

AIFF 2009 (Official Greek entry at the International Short Film section)

Purchased by Canal + France/Poland/Africa

2008 - "The Bear and the Rabbit" 16' Writer / Director

DRAMA International Short Film Festival 2008 — Best Film Production Award / Best Editing Award

2004 - "The Soul of Damon Ploumis" 10' Writer / Director

PLATFORMA International Video Festival 2004 — 1st Prize for Best Film